CROSS QUITS THE BOX

KANSAS CITY LINES 'EM OUT AND THE PITCHER LAYS DOWN.

Mills and Dalrymple Then Divide His Work-Plenty of Runs, the Visitors

Getting Most of Them.

Something very much like a hippodrome was given at the ball grounds yesterday, in the presence of twelve hundred or more derisive spectators. In the first place, the misfortune of having a man who not only seems a trifle "cranky," but who, apparently, thinks he is built for faster company, and over whom the local club has no control, whatever, could never have been made more apparent than by yesterday's exhibition. Cross has never been released by Cincinnati, and returns there the latter part of this week, Comiskey's programme now being to pitch him in the Sunday game against St. Louis. After he had been hit pretty hard for a little over four innings, yesterday, he walked out of the box and told Manager Sharshig he wouldn't pitch another ball. Sharsig tried to induce him to go on, but Manning's home run seemed to stick in Cross's craw, and he said when a fellow like that could hit him for four bases he would get out of the game. Having no jurisdiction over him, Sharsig had no option in the matter, and so Mills went into the box, that being very wisely deemed a better move than to use Phillips up on a game that was already lost. Mills pitched until he got tired, and then Dalrymple tried his hand, umpire McDonald contributing to the force by calling Ulrich's foul fly in the sixth inning, which everybody saw, was plainly outside the line, fair, and allowing that player two bases on it. It did not have the merit even of being a close decision as the ball struck foul by nearly a yard. Veach was again tried at short and seemed unable to cover more than a few feet of ground on either side of him. Hits went down between third and short that a good man would have fielded, but Veach made scarcely a move for them. Toward the close of the game the home team found batted in. They made enough to win ar ordinary game, and had Cross not played the baby act it is possible the game migh have been pulled out even in the face of big odds. It is a well-known fact that Cross has finished very strong in all the games he has pitched. His weakness has been in the early stages, and he has always seemed to grow more effective as the home stretch was reached. Had he continued vesterday in the right spirit Indianapolis would certainly have made a creditable contest of it and possibly have changed the result. A single by Gray and Mills's double gave the home team a run in the opening inning. Kansas City did not begin its de structive work until the second inning, when, after Veach had fumbled Nichols's grounder. Niles hit for two bases, and Sharp followed with a single, which Dalrymple let get through him, clearing the bases. Donahue struck out, but Danlels got a base on balls and Manning hit to center for a double and Ulrich for a single. Hernon sacrificed, Klusman hit safe to left and Nichols flew out to Dalrymple. The result of all this was six runs. Nothing more happened in the way of run getting until the fourth, when each team scored one. Indianapolis profited by a wild throw of Donahue's and a fumble by Nichols, Mills making the circuit on his life, a stolen base and these errors. Two doubles and a single gave the visitors their run. In the fifth Sharp opened with a safe hit to left. Henry dropped Donahue's fly, but caught Sharp at third on a quick throw to Mills, who fielded the ball to Gray, thus, Mills, who fielded the ball to Gray, thus, in a measure, retrieving the error. Daniels hit for a single and Manning to right center for a home run, and it was at this stage of the game that Cross pulled out. Mills then went into the box, Dalrymple going to first, Motz to second and Phillips to center. Veach fumbled Ulrich's grounder, Hernon was thrown out at first and Klusman should have been out at the same place, but Dalrymple muffed the throw, Ulrich scoring. Nichols got a base on balls, but Niles was retired at first. In the sixth, with two men out, five runs were sixth, with two men out, five runs were scored on two doubles, two singles, a sacrifice, a base on balls and a base on being hit by a pitched ball. In the seventh inn-ing the visitors piled up eight runs, getting two triples, two doubles, two singles, two bases on balls and a wild pitch. In the eighth two singles, a steal and a sacrifice The home team scored three in the sixth, Motz being hit by a pitched ball, Mills getting a double to left, Leidy a home run to right center and Veach a single. The latter was left, however, Schaub striking out. In the seventh a base on balls, two fumbles by Sharp, a three-base hit by Mills and a long fly yielded four runs. In the eighth Veach's single, Schaub's triple and a single by Phillips added two more runs, which completed the sum total of the Indianapolis and of the string. Score: gave them two more. ADD TO A D

SHIELDS COMING TO-DAY.

Milwaukee Held Him Until His Five Days Were Up-Chance to Invest. Shields did not make his appearance yesterday, but will arrive here this morning at 9 o'clock and play short this afternoon in the opening game against Sioux City. The reason for his non-appearance yesterday is that Manager Cushman, of Milwaukee, refused to let him come until his five days were up, desiring to weaken Indianapolis as much as possible in order to climb up another notch in the race. Shields, therefore, had to remain with Milwaukee until last night, though not playing, in or-der to get all his salary. His time was up-last evening and he left Detroit at once for this city. As the Detroits walked all over Milwaukee yesterday Cushman is doubtless in a worse frame of mind than ever.

Frank Motz hopes to be allowed to remain here, and is doing all he can to get Comiskey to consent. He is a great favorite with the crowds and, as everybody knows, one of the best hitters Indianapolis ever had. Sharsig is trying to get hold of a first-class battery. Schaub will be used as an emergency catcher until another good one is received. He is doing creditable work behind the bat. Westlake resumes his place there to-day with Phillips in the box. Mil-waukee has released catcher Roberts, who telegraphed here for a place last night, but Sharsig wants a better man and expects to get one soon. If the management will to get one soon. If the management will put up a little money the release of a good pitcher can probably be secured from some club or another. According to the papers Milwaukee has paid Brooklyn $500 for Gilbert's release. It would be a good thing for the home team to invest in a pitcher and the Southern league offers a fine opportunity just now, being within a few weeks of dissolution. Two or three of the clubs in that organization are behind in salaries and it will go to pieces after July 4 according it will go to pieces after July 4, according to good baseball authority. It would seem that right now is the time to get a bargain in pitchers down there.

Sieux City plays here for three days, beginning this afternoon, and there is much curiosity to see the Western league leaders. Cross will probably pitch the Thursday game unless he concludes to go back to Cincinnati before that time. Grand Rapids will reappear on Friday for three games. TO COMPETE WITH OXFORD.

Yale Will Send a Team of Athletes to England. NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 11 .- At a meeting of the undergraduates of Yale, held this evening, it was decided to send a Yale team to compete with Oxford in athletics. T. H. Sherrill, jr., '89 Yale, a wellknown sprinter, announced that the Oxford authorities had already procured grounds and that a letter of invitation was now on its way to this country. Sherrill said that the present Yale team was the best one that Yale has ever had, and said further that it seemed almost certain that Yale would win the contest. He compared the best performances of Yale's team with the records made by the Oxford men. A Pond, of Detroit, Mich., whose excellent work at the Traver's island games on Saturday, brought him to the fore, will take Sandford's place in the one-hundred-yard and quarter-mile sprints. Allowing for the English measurements, Yale's records for this year in contests are better in the hammer, shot, half mile, broad jump and hur-dle and in practice are better in the onehundred yards, quarter-mile and high jump. Arrangements have been made to send the men on the steamer New York, which is to sail on Wednesday, June 20.
